

Stephanie Y. Pope-Earley
Board Member

Stephanie Pope-Earley is an advocate for change in the City of Cleveland. Born and raised in the Collinwood neighborhood, she is heavily involved in civic engagement and the betterment of the district of which she currently resides. As a delegate of Cleveland VOTES she goes above and beyond to ensure that voters are engaged and educated on the voting process. In addition, she serves as a member of the Ward 8 Democratic Club, Cuyahoga County Executive Committee

Representative and Precinct Committee Representative for the Cuyahoga County Democratic Party.

As Founder of The Destiny Project, an empowerment program for inner city youth, Pope-Earley seeks out creative ways to impact the lives of children through mentorship. She believes that it is important to encourage our youth to be leaders, to build strong character, and to realize their full potential as responsible citizens. Along with youth development, Pope-Earley serves the Collinwood neighborhood as a community organizer and board member for the Northeast Shores Development Corporation.

Dedicated to public service; Pope-Earley has been in her current position as a Probation Officer with the City of Cleveland for 14 years. She graduated from the Cleveland Municipal School district and obtained a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from The University of Akron. She currently serves as the Commissioner for the Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority.
